The Possibilities
are Endless

Healthcare is the largest provider of jobs in the US

US health spending grew 4.6% in 2019

+4.6%

$3.8T

That's $3.8 trillion or $11,582 per person

17% of the national GDP

+15%

By 2029, the industry is expected to grow 15% (much faster than the average)

2.4 million new jobs by 2029 (more than any other occupational group)

+2.4M

Health related jobs can be found in many different organizations, including:

Pharma Companies

Hospitals

Insurance Companies

Government

Universities

Non-Profit

There's no single path to a healthcare profession.

Some professions—like nursing—have a corresponding degree, but many do not.

Nursing Degree

Nurse

Specific Degree

Specific Job

Medical Degree

Doctor

Education is key to career progression.
